

Boys Hope Girls Hope of St. Louis hosted our 28th annual Evening of Hope Gala on Thursday, October 12th at St. Louis Union Station. We entertained nearly 350 guests in the Grand Hall and raised over $840,000! Support from this event allows us to meet our scholar's needs throughout the year offering opportunities for a great education, a safe home, and programming to help our scholars meet their full potential.

The 2023 gala was presented by Emerson with Lisa Flavin, Senior Vice President & Chief Compliance Officer, serving as event co-chair alongside Andrea Barry, Partner for Deloitte.

“It’s been an honor working with the Boys Hope Girls Hope team and scholars over the years and especially serving as co-chair for the annual gala for the past 13 years,” says Lisa. “I’ve been fortunate to witness firsthand the power of this event and how it has a direct and profound impact on the lives of our scholars.”

Rene Knott, Today in St. Louis co-anchor, served as emcee for the event. The Fr. Sheridan Reflection of Hope award was presented to Safety National and accepted by Executive Chairman Mark Wilhelm, and The Wacker Family received the Heart of Hope award. Miguel Garcia, a BHGHSTL alum, was the guest speaker.

We are so grateful for the support of all of our sponsors, guests, staff, and scholars for making our 28th Gala a success!
